A LITERARY SPILT.

Jack Spratt and his wife were persons of more than ordinary limited means. Occasionally they spent fifteen cents for one of the illustrated monthly magazines. Jack loathed the advertisements and his wife detested the reading matter. So they split it in two and thus kept clean their literary pletter.

The L. & N. and C. & O.'s "suit case special" Saturday morning brought a hundred thirsty and disappointed tourists to Mayville, who arrived only to find it was election day and all the saloons had the lid on. An indignation meeting followed.

ISAAC CHANSLOR

Father of Mrs. Frank Armstrong and I. F. Chanslor of Mayville Died Suddenly

MILLERSBURG, KY., August 31.—Mr. I. Chanslor, aged 68, died suddenly this afternoon between 5 and 6 o'clock at his home, one-half mile South of Millersburg, on the Mayville pike of acute indigestion. Mr. Chanslor was apparently in good health except that this morning he complained of a sour stomach and a slight pain. He finished his farm work and went to the house and laid down before supper. His daughter heard him sneeze and going to call him to supper, found him dead.

Mr. Chanslor was a prominent farmer of this section, having moved to his farm here from Mason county in 1893. His wife, who was Miss Jennie Reese of Mason county, died last September, and his brother, Mr. R. C. Chanslor of this city, died about four weeks ago.

He is survived by six daughters: Mrs. Frank Armstrong of Mayville, Mrs. Harry Bedford of Lexington, Mrs. T. R. Wilson of Robinson Station and Misses Allie, Florence and Lillian Chanslor, who resided with their father; and two sons: W. T. Chanslor of Little Rock, and I. F. Chanslor, Jr., of Mayville.

Deceased is a brother of Mrs. John T. Parker of West Third street. Funeral this afternoon at 4 o'clock at his late home, after which the remains will be brought to this city and the interment will take place tomorrow morning at 10 o'clock in Shannon Cemetery.

STATE PRIMARY

First of Such Elections Pulled Off in Kentucky—Few Women Voted

LOUISVILLE, KY., August 3d.—Democrats over the State celebrated the first state-wide primary in Kentucky by turning out in great numbers in every county wherever there was a semblance of a contest. In the three Congressional districts where Democratic candidates were running for the nomination, the vote was unusually heavy.

ONLY A FEW WOMEN VOTE

Democratic Congressmen in the Second, Fourth, Fifth, Sixth, Ninth and Eleventh Districts were nominated without opposition.

Women in Kentucky had their first opportunity to utilize their right of suffrage in school elections, but according to reports, only a few of them exercised this right. In many instances only a few women went to the polls and the vote counted upon to be cast by them did not come up to expectations.

The primary was one of the quietest in years and no report was received telling of any trouble among the workers of candidates. In the Fifth district, where there were no contests, hardly any voters went to the polls.

In the State-wide primary law this particular phase of a primary was overlooked and to be legal the polls had to be kept open all day as if a real contest was to be decided.

The election here Saturday was a small affair. Fields, Democrat, received 163 votes and Bailey, Republican, 69.

RABIES

In Dogs Marked By Distinct Symptoms—Two Kind of Disease—Watch Dogs This Time of Year

The monthly bulletin of the Ohio State Board of Health gives the following symptoms that dogs suffering with rabies show. There are two kinds of the disease, the "furious" and the "dumb." The following are symptoms of the former class:

A change in the dog's disposition—either more affectionate or more sulky than normal. Restlessness, passing into a tendency to wander from home.

Tendency to snap or bite anything which moves, often developing into a maniacal fury. Refuses food and usually drink, but may eat indigestible objects like stones, I a bar, his own feces, or lick up his urine.

Change of voice so that it becomes hoarse—half bark, half howl, like a "tired bound," when treading game.

Paralysis, usually beginning in hind legs, gradually becoming total, and ending in dyspnea and death.

He does not froth at the mouth, seldom has marked "fits," and does not throw an oblique fit for diagnosis when he sees water or when it is thrown on him.

These symptoms are common in both types, but dogs with dumb rabies seldom attempt to bite or become violent.

RUGGLES CAMP GROUND

Daily Happenings at Favorite Resort As Told By Our Reporter J. H. Richardson

RUGGLES CAMPGROUNDS, Aug. 23, 1912. Our force of ministers has materially decreased by the return to their several appointments, of a large number in time to preach on Sunday; however there will be enough on hand to keep up a lively interest in the services until the close.

Today's morning congregation was privileged to hear one of the greatest sermons of the compendium delivered by Rev. M. S. Clark of the South Methodist Church of Mayville. It was on "The Divine Origin and Mission of Methodism." It is certain that every Methodist who heard this sermon and there was a large congregation left the tabernacle with a feeling of pride in the great Methodist Church, and with a determination to live lives worthy of the history and founders of this great Church.

Rev. H. W. Buntin had charge of the young people's service this afternoon; tomorrow we will have the regular leader, G. W. Buntin back with us again. G. W. has so endeared himself to our young people that when he is away things don't seem to move just as smoothly as they should.

A party consisting of Messrs. Frank and Sam Carpenter, their sisters, Misses Nora and Florence of Mason Heights, Miss May Harrop of Barbourville and Miss Minnie Belle Powell of Mayville were in attendance today.

Miss Mabel Tolle of Mayville and Anna Florence Tolle of Kenova, W. Va., arrived this evening to remain over till the close.

Miss Nanette Keenan of Orangeburg came today to enjoy the last few days of the meetings. She will be the guest of Miss Rosa Mae Coryell in the Old Kentucky Home.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Worthington and daughters of Minerva will arrive tomorrow to stay over Sunday to attend the meetings.

There was another great evangelistic service tonight. Rev. A. P. Smith of Catlettsburg presided the sermon. His subject was "The Judgment." The sermon was a strong appeal to the sinner to escape future punishment at the judgment by accepting the Savior. The sermon was followed by the singing by the quartette of the song, "Too Late." A stirring exhortation was given by Dr. McClellan and the invitation extended and four came to the altar and were converted. The congregation was a very large one, and to show their interest in the meeting, they remained until the whole service was at an end at 10:15 o'clock. The indications are for a glorious close up of campmeeting.

The collection of Internal Revenue for the Seventh District during July as given out Friday by Collector T. A. Field, amounted to $255,515.63, as compared with a total of $209,269.90 for the same month of 1911, an increase of $46,255.73.

MUST NOT DRINK

State Prison and Reform School Officials Will Lose Their Jobs if They Do

At Frankfort, on the penalty of dismissal from service at the penitentiary and houses of reform of any who take any kind of intoxicating liquors at these institutions, an order was issued by the new Prison Commission as follows: "Any Warden, Deputy Warden, Superintendent, guardian or other officials or employes of the State Prisons or State Houses of Reform, who shall drink intoxicating liquors while on duty or who shall be found under the influence of intoxicating liquors on or off duty shall be dismissed."

The commission also determined to send back to the counties from which they were sent to the houses of reform children, who are paupers instead of criminals. The commission decided to grant no parole or make appointments at this meeting.

GOOD BUSINESS

Is the Good Roads Proposition—Value of Farm Lands—Increased

The good roads proposition is purely a business one. In the final analysis it resolves itself into a matter of dollars and cents.

Heavier loads can be hauled over a good road than a bad one, while the wear and tear of a horse and wagon are reduced to the minimum.

In addition to this the driver is not jolted out of his senses nor the horse yanked about by the jerking and twisting common to the usual road. Everything goes easier and every body is benefited. Another important feature is that the price of real estate increases whenever a good road goes before it.

If a man intends to buy either in the city or in the country almost the first question he asks is about the condition of the roads surrounding the place and the value fixed is largely based upon this. In many instances sales are lost when it is learned that the road system of the adjacent property is poor. Every farmer knows that his land will bring a higher price if the roads about it are in good condition than if it lies in a poor road district.

Thinking it over seriously do you not think that road improvement is a good thing both for yourself and your neighbor? In reality it is not a blessing for everybody?

KICKERS' CORNER

If any one at any time for any reason has any cause to "kick" in any way at anything of any kind, here's the place to say his say. The door is open—walk right in and help yourself, free gratis and for nothing—but don't make your "kicks" too long—it's the short, quick fellos that count—and cut.

To the Editor: In the year of our Lord 1912, or in the Mohammedan year 1290, moved by the spirit of true observance to nature, we send in the two following remarks in the form of poetry. Leaving it to your discrimination the choosing of the best for publication, we remain, yours respectfully,

ONE THOUSAND DOLLAR STAKE

Is The Big Feature of the Horse Show At Kentucky State Fair In September

FAMOUS HORSES WILL BE SEEN

This Big Event is for Five-Gaited Saddle Horses Under Three Years Old—Thirteen Nominations Have Been Made.

The horse show, as usual, will be a feature at the Kentucky State Fair this year. The list of events to be decided during the week of the fair is headed by the $1,000 stake for five-gaited saddle horses, three-year-old, and over, entries to which closed July 1. With the exception of one other stake of the same value this is the richest saddle horse stake to be contested in America this year and because of this fact the entries closed July 1 with thirteen nominations, the largest number ever entered for this stake. Of the thirteen nominations made they represent eleven owners and it is certain that at least eleven will be shown in the big stake which will be decided Friday night of the fair. Among those who nominated in the rich prize are Powhattan Woolridge, Louisville, one entry; P. W. Ray, Bowling Green, two entries; The Undulata Farm of Col. Harry Wells, Lexington, two entries; Bal Brothers, Versailles, one entry; Collins & Redmond and Allie G. Jones, North Middletown, one entry each; J. L. Nichol & Son, Woodburn, one entry; Mrs. Richard Tucker Lowndes, Danville, one entry; Robert E. Moreland, Lexington; Hickman & Ormsby, Louisville; and Matlack & Sprophire, Winchester, one entry each.

While the horses to be shown will not be named until September 1st, the list of eligibles include such star performers as Kentucky's Choice, Nollie Plate, Maud King, Roosevelt, Nazima, Undulata Chief, Major Dore, Sadie Macey, Hazel Dawn, Rexall Prince, Princess V, and others of equal merit.

While the entries to the big stake closed July 1 with thirteen nominations the nominators did not have to make known the name of their starters in the race until the night of September 1, thirteen days in advance of the date of the stake, and previous to that time nominators have the privilege of disposing of their nominations to other owners. With this condition it is expected that several of the prominent saddle horse owners of the East will take advantage of an opportunity of purchasing a nomination from one of those who have made two nominations to the stake with a view of getting their horses in the stake in fact should any owner decide before September 1 that his eligible was not in condition to compete for the stake he will have an opportunity of disposing of his nomination to another, and as many of the most famous saddlers each season are usually developed between July 1 and September 1 it is certain the $1,000 stake will be contested for by the best in the country.

Other events for three and five-gaited saddle horses as well as for light harness horses insure the horse show at the State Fair this year will prove one of the greatest attractions in the history of the fair.

RICH PRIZE FOR BOY

Who Wins the Judging Contest at the Kentucky State Fair Sept. 9-14.

With a view of further encouragement to the farmer boys of Kentucky to gain a scientific knowledge of agriculture the State Fair management has again this year made arrangements for a renewal of the Students' Judging Contest, which has proved so popular in the past, and a scholarship in the agricultural college of the State University, carrying with it $100 in cash, will be offered for the best judge of several classes. The contest will consist of rings for horses, cattle, sheep and swine exhibited at the State Fair and written statements are to be presented by each contestant setting forth his reasons for the decisions reached by him.

The contest this year will be under the personal supervision of Prof. J. J. Hooper, Professor of Animal Husbandry of the Kentucky State University at Lexington, and it is his purpose to devote much of his time from now until the date of the fair in working up interest among the farmer boys of the state in the event. Inasmuch as the farmer boys of Kentucky are proud of their ability to correctly judge a horse or other farm animal, much interest is always manifested in this contest and as many applications for entry blanks have been received by Secretary Dent this year it is expected that keen rivalry will exist among several hundred young men and boys the week of the fair, September 9-13. Any boy who wishes to enter the contest can secure an application blank by applying to J. L. Dent, Secretary of the State Fair, Room 320, Paul Jones Building, Louisville, and all information relative to the contest will be forwarded to the applicant with the entry blank.

IN PURSUIT OF HOOD'S ARMY

Member of Minnesota Regiment Gives Details Leading to Capture of Pointe Coupee Battery.

A sketch of the incidents leading to the capture of the Pointe Coupee Battery at Nashville is given by Theodore G. Carter, captain, Co. K, 7th Minnesota, in the National Tribune as follows:

"At Nashville the 6th Minn. was on the left of the Second Brigade, First Division, Sixteenth Corps, front line, its left flank resting on the Granny White pike. The Pointe Coupee battery was in front of my company. On Dec. 15th we had charged and driven the enemy's forces from two forts or redoubts, without stopping to place guards over the guns, colors and other captured property. Our colonel, W. R. Marshall, was in command of the Third Brigade on the 16th, and he was the only brigade commander who led his brigade in that charge of the Sixteenth Corps, and he was on horseback at that. A lance ran along the front of and below the high woodland upon which the Pointe Coupee battery was, and the Confederates took the inside fence rails and placed them on top of the outer fence, with the ends resting on top of the fence and sloped towards us, the lower ends covered with dirt to keep them in place. They were laid close together, and it was difficult to climb them. A shell had knocked out a part of the obstruction. As I was looking towards the battery (it was pouring grape, canister and shrapnel at us all the time), I did not notice the movement of the regiment to the right; consequently when I saw it there was a break in my company of some 75 or 100 yards. I told the remaining eight or ten boys that we would go to that gap and go over. The boys 'boosted' me up, and as I gained the top I saw Col. Marshall come galloping down from the right. He rode out into the crowd of fleeing Confederates, calling out: 'Lay down your arms and surrender.' I jumped down, and telling the boys to follow me, ran after the colonel, giving the same call. There were apparently thousands of them trying to get over the hills to the Franklin pike. Our left flank the capture of that battery, too, yet we had been in possession quite awhile before their line had fairly started."

"Lay Down Your Arms and Surrender."

Sykes' Dog and Hood's Army. After the battle of Nashville a friend asked President Lincoln if he expected any more trouble from Hood's army. He replied:

"Well, no, Medill; I think Hood's army is about in the same fix of Bill Sykes' dog, down in Sangamon county. Bill had a long, yellow dog that was forever getting into the neighbors' meat houses and chicken coops. They had tried to kill it a hundred times, but the dog was always too smart for them. Finally one of them got a small bag and filled it up with powder, tying a piece of punk around the neck. When he saw the dog coming he fired this punk, split open a hot blast and put the bag in, then he lit it and threw it out. The dog swallowed it at a gulp. Pretty soon there was an explosion, and pieces of the dog fell all around. Bill Sykes came along, and seeing the scraps lying around, said: 'I guess that dog, as a dog, ain't of much more account.' There may be fragments of Hood's army around, but I guess his army, as an army, ain't of much more account."

Didn't Worry Grant. General Sherman used to say: "I know more tactics and strategy than Grant, and have just as good a mind and a better military training. But what the other fellow is doing when Grant can't see him doesn't worry him a bit, while it worries me like thunder."

What's a Fortification? A recruit being asked what constituted a fortification answered: "Well, I guess two twenty-calibers make a fortification."

Advice to Vacationists

Before leaving for your vacation learn--
The names of all the latest popular songs and a snatch of half a dozen tunes.
The plots of the ten best sellers.
The latest slang.
The names of half a dozen actresses and a little anecdote about each.
Then you will be able to talk intelligently to the summer girls.

Total operating revenues of Pennsylvania lines, east and west, in June show increase of $3,561,426; net grain is $1,564,698.

Practically all the Government work started on the Ohio river this season is at a standstill as a result of the high water. It is believed considerable dredging will be required in the vicinity of the dams when the water recedes to a normal stage.

HELP THE KIDNEYS

MAYSVILLE READERS ARE LEARNING THE WAY

It's the little kidney ills—
The lame, weak or aching back—
The unnoticed urinary disorders—
That may lead to Dropsy and Bright's disease.

When the kidneys are weak, Help them with Doan's Kidney Pills. A remedy especially for weak kidneys. Doan's have been used in kidney troubles for over 50 years.

Endorsed by 30,000 people—endorsed at home. Proof in a Mayville citizen's statement. Lang Stevens, Mayville, Ky., says: "I can recommend Doan's Kidney Pills to everyone who suffers from backache and kidney weakness. My kidneys were out of order and I had backache, attended with pain which extended into my kidneys. The kidney secretion was irregular. Doan's Kidney Pills had been used in my family so I gave them a trial. They made me entirely better."

"Yes, fellow citizens we know we may be criticized for it, but we believe in woman's rights. If she wants to milk the cow, build the fire in the stove, or cook a hot meal in summer time; who is there to object? Not I, for one. I assure you."

We Might!

Lie and sell a suit, but it doesn't pay. We might run a lottery to try and get business, but it's putting business on a very low basis. We might keep open on Sunday and sell more goods, but it's against the law, and we like to be law-abiding citizens.

We might make money, but not a dollar could we take away with us, so we decided when we started in business to tell the truth, not run any lotteries, keep closed on Sundays and sell at a live-and-let-live-profit, making friends each day and getting business the best, lasting and highest way.

Our sale of Men's and Boys' Suits at the reduced prices is one of our ways of doing business in the mid-summer. Come in as soon as you can.
